To start my report for 2004, I would like to thank the more than 620 volunteers, who gladly gave their time and energy to assist the Golf Association of Ontario with the administration of amateur golf in Ontario. The success of the 2004 season would not have been possible without their dedicated time and effort.

This the third year since the amalgamation of the Ontario Ladies Golf Association and Ontario Golf Association proved to be an exciting one. When I became President I was determined that 2004 would be the year of "change" for the GAO. I am pleased to report that, although it took considerable time and energy, the many proposed changes were implemented. As a result, I strongly believe the GAO has enhanced its role in amateur golf in Ontario.

The GAO Board and Staff spent two days last fall mapping out a strategic plan, which challenged many of the day to day operations. The biggest issues addressed were, the way the GAO communicated with its members, and the need to update the business practices of the association. As a result, a new database system was introduced for administration, and a number of changes were made in the area of tournament registration and finance.

As we continued to expand the use of technology, the GAO improved its use of online resources. The GAO website was used to recruit new volunteers, improve volunteer communications, update volunteer contact information, and keep volunteers involved with tournaments in terms of scheduling and other important information.

The new office accounting system was a challenge at first, but ended up being an excellent addition to the GAO financial department. I have to thank Mark Barrett, for the many hours spent ensuring that the GAO finances were in good order. The finance report will detail the GAO management of the funds entrusted to them.

Board member Bill Duffield, and our new Director of Tournaments, Dave Colling and his staff were kept extremely busy during the 2004 season. Despite some challenges from Mother Nature, the tournament season included 58 qualifying events and 27 championships. These events were made possible by the endless dedication of tournament volunteers, host club staff and patient golfers. Thank you all. With the success of online registration this past year, the tournament committee plans to use technology even more during the 2005 season. The highlights of our tournament season are highlighted in the results section. Congratulations to all the 2004 Champions!

TABOO RESORT & CONFERENCE CENTRE

Under the guidance of Board member Paul Fitzgerald and the Director of Handicapping & Course rating Craig Loughry, over 150 golf courses in Ontario were rated this past year. Spending close to 15 hours per course, GAO rating teams dedicated approximately 2250 hours over the course of the 2004 season. The course rating season was highlighted by a number of joint rating ventures, including one completed at the Essex Golf & Country Club. Under the direction of Derek White, rating teams from the Golf Association of Michigan and the GAO worked side by side to complete the rating. Another joint rating was completed in the Kingston District, where the GAO rating team, joined by a team from the Quebec Golf Association, completed the rating of Cataraqui Golf & Country Club. This is a major step forward; the ability to work with different rating teams on the same golf course is not only beneficial for our course raters, but it is also helpful in building relationships with neighboring associations.

Our rules officials, under the direction of Board member Lee Griffin, dedicated hundreds of hours at qualifying and championship events this past season. Without their tireless efforts the tournament season would not have been possible. You will struggle to find a more dedicated group. However, this group has a major challenge ahead of them, as the number of certified officials is shrinking. The Board has noted this as a priority and will be taking steps to reverse this trend in 2005.

This past year, I have been part of the amalgamation process at the national level. The Canadian Ladies' Golf Association and the Royal Canadian Golf Association have both worked very hard during the year on the venture; we should all commend their efforts to date. The GAO will continue to be well represented at the national level, as we will continue to have representatives from our Board in various positions within the RCGA, including the newly formed Ladies' Division.

In closing, I want to express my sincere appreciation to all the Board members and volunteers whom I have worked with over the past years. I would also like to thank the GAO staff members, who support us and work with us to enhance amateur golf in Ontario. I will miss the day to day activities, but will fondly remember the friends I have made over the past 8 years. I will continue to support the efforts of the GAO, and know that the GAO is in good hands with new President, Barb Allan.

Respectively submitted,
Morris Whatmore, President

District Coordinators Report

The District Coordinators (DC) Committee is made up of two Coordinators from each of the 14 Districts. Two of these Coordinators represent the DC Committee on the Board of Directors. Each District has its own structure and sets its own programs and tournaments specific to the needs of its members. The scope of these programs can be seen in the District Reports which follow.

The Committee mandate is; to liaise between the Clubs in the Districts and the Board of Directors, keep abreast of new initiatives from the GAO and communicate them to their Districts, and provide a forum to exchange information between Districts. To that end, we meet twice a year with various Board Members and GAO staff, who give reports and try to answer the many questions that come from the Districts. A major component of the meeting is set aside to share problems, challenges and new programs.

One challenge facing many of the Districts is the lack of volunteers willing to be active on the District Executives. This is a serious problem, we urge you all to be involved in any capacity whether it be Rules, Course Rating, Tournaments, or as District Secretary. All of the Districts need help to continue to run their programs. It is well worth the effort. Another challenge affecting some of the Districts, is locating the Club Reps and Captains in order to communicate information to the individual clubs. The privacy act has not helped in this regard as it is not easy to obtain this information.

Other than the Grey Power Tournament the men in the District are not as active as one might hope but at least one District has held a Men's Championship with great success. Once again I am sure with time and patience integration will evolve as it should. Sincere thanks to Sandy Davidson who has been a great help this year.

Respectively submitted,
Nancy Reid and Tom Quarantillo, Co Chairs

Essex-Kent District Report

The 2004 season has ended with many accomplishments within our District. These accomplishments are due to the dedication of the District Executive and the involvement and assistance of the great clubs, professionals, managers, and golfers within our District. The District Spring meeting was held at Kingsville Golf Club on April 17. Dave Mills was our Guest Speaker and presented the benefits of being a GAO member. We were pleased to welcome Bellevue Golf Course & Dominion Golf Course to the GAO this year.

After 2 years of service as Junior Development Convener, Linda Terpstra has resigned her position within the Essex-Kent District. We are looking for someone to take on this important role. Linda, even though initially hesitant upon taking this role, really enjoyed her role and she will be missed.

With only 19 juniors registered to golf at the 2004 District Junior Tournament, the decision was made to cancel the event, which was very disappointing. We would like to thank Kingsville Golf & County Club for offering their course for this event, as well as all those who had planned to volunteer.

This year, the District Amateur/Senior event was held at Fox Glen on June 1 and was attended by 57 ladies. Patricia Ellsworth won the Amateur tournament shooting 77 and Mary Lou Henderson won the Senior tournament shooting 78. The District Better Ball event was held at the Ridgeway Golf & Curling Club and was attended by 134 ladies. Cheryl Damphouse & Margot Gillespie won low gross with a 70 while Diana Jones and M Paulin won low net with a 61.

For the 9 hole golfers, this was a year of many rainy days. The field winners from 5 tournaments were invited to participate in the 9 Hole Tournament of Champions, held at Rochester Place on September 13. Fun was had by all, with Karon Brennanstuhl winning low gross and Irene Carmichael taking low net.

This year the Essex-Kent District volunteers worked three provincial qualifying events: the Men's Better Ball, the Men's Amateur and the Junior/Juvenile Boys' hosted by Sutton Creek, Erie Shores and Blenheim Golf Clubs respectively. In October, Sutton Creek also hosted the OUA Golf Championship with the assistance of GAO volunteers. Our thanks to these clubs and their membership for offering their fine facilities to our competitors and our volunteers.

Twenty-six women, one junior boy and a husband attended the Essex-Kent District rules clinic, which was held at Tilbury Golf Club on Saturday, May 29.

Most of the morning session was spent explaining rule changes/amendments for 2004. The participants were eager to fill in the 45-minute question and answer period just before lunch. In the afternoon, we enjoyed a sunny day outside reviewing many of the changes covered in the morning session, teeing ground infractions/penalties, correct procedure for taking relief from immovable obstructions, and penalty and non-penalty situations on the putting green. After the clinic, Rose Marchand from the Tilbury Club, expressed an interest in sharing the duties of the rules convener at the District level and I am looking forward to working with Rose in the 2005 golf season.

Although six courses were scheduled to be rated this season we were only successful in rating five, including, Essex Golf & Country Club, Tilbury Golf & Curling Club, Kingsville Golf & Country Club (rated by London), and new members: Dominion Golf Club, and Bellevue Golf Club. Sutton Creek Golf Club could not be done as they were still doing renovations. I would like to thank the members of the Rating Team, Mary Jo Laforet, Carol Scarlett, Joyce Stewart & Wali Forster, for voluntarily giving their time and effort to make the courses in our district a fair test for all levels.

It was another great year for Essex-Kent, as we were well represented at the Provincial level. Two team trials were held in 2004, at Fox Glen and Severn Lakes to determine our final team. The Amateur team for 2004 consisted of Cheryl Mitchell, Kim Rutherford, Margo McGeorge-Dolsen and Dessa Kaspardlov. The senior team consisted of Carmen Eaton, Wali Forster, Cindy Nedin and Brenda Hoyles. The H.A.T. team for this year had the best qualifying numbers that I have experienced since taking this role. But unfortunately, because of lack of entries, the event had to be cancelled at the last hour. Overall, Essex-Kent had an outstanding year and I know I can speak for our entire District in saying Congratulations!

Our annual fall classic was originally scheduled for October 16 but was postponed due to inclement weather to October 23 at Baldoon Golf Club. Twelve players, representing both Kent & Essex, were paired for an 18 hole singles match play format. Congratulations to the Kent team for winning this year's Match Play. Soon, we hope to include some men's teams in the season ending festivities of this fall classic.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lori Couture, District Coordinator
Bruce Rand, District Coordinator

Hamilton District Report

The past year was very busy within the Hamilton District. The rating team was able to rate four courses; Burlington Golf & Country Club, Dundas Valley Golf Club, Millcroft Golf Club, The Greens of Renton, Hamilton Golf & Country Club.

The district also hosted a number of educational sessions for club reps, captains, and members. In the spring, twenty eight members participated in the handicap seminar, at Burlington Golf and Country Club. The Rules Committee also ran two Rules of Golf Seminars in the spring, which were both very well attended.

The traditional Ladies' tournaments were held this year with the exception of the H.A.T. tournament which was cancelled due to low participation. The second annual Grey Power tournament was slow to start, but the addition of the ladies division help the growth of the event. This year participation grew to four clubs and forty-two participants. In the end the ladies' team of Doris Henhawk and Pat Rundle and men's team of Roy S. Barron and George Scott represented the District at the Provincial Championship.

We are planning for greater involvement from all the clubs in our district to develop more club tournaments and participation in 2005. Several clubs have increased their junior development programs over the past year and with the help and support of the GAO we hope to expand these programs even further next year.

Respectfully Submitted,

John E. Swift, District Coordinator
Ruth Giles, District Coordinator

Hurononia District Report

Hurononia District has completed one of its busiest and most successful seasons in history. We staged three District Championships, the GAO Family Classic, and the Grey Power Classic Provincial Championship. We are one of the largest Districts in the GAO in terms of Member Clubs and geographic area, and operated within budget guidelines. This year, participation in our Championships increased over 2003.

Our season began with a well-attended Spring Meeting at Barrie Country Club, with 80 attendees representing 23 Member Clubs. We are grateful to Rules Official Bob Rae who conducted an excellent Clinic. The fall meeting, at Barrie C.C., saw 55 club representatives in attendance.

In our tournament season, Judy Stewart prevented Sue Burton from winning a third consecutive Amateur Title by defeating her in a one-hole playoff at Borden Golf Club during the District Four Star Championship. Other winners were Leslie Houde (Senior), Leslie Agnew (Diamond Lil) and Bev Bailey (Double Diamond Lil).

A three-hole playoff was needed at the Four-Ball Championship held at Shelburne Golf and Country Club, with Helen Cross and Deb Selig edging out Sandra Slack and Jan Baldwin for the title. At the Junior Championship, Amy Vellinga won the title by three shots over Katlin Garbutt.

Our District Teams once again represented Huronia in a first-class manner. The Amateur Team was made up of Sue Burton, Judy Stewart, Kristy McLaughlin and Susan Goheen, with Erin Thorne as the alternate. Our Junior Team was made up of Lindsay Fay and Katlin Garbutt, with Amy Vellinga as alternate. At the Provincial Championship, Lindsay won low net honors.

The Grey Power Classic was held at Hawk Ridge Golf and Country Club, and Huronia was represented by teams, both from Couchiching Golf and Country Club, John Storey and Andy Bishop (men), and Bonnie Cranney and Doreen Willy (women). Our annual June Days also saw increased attendance, with Shelburne G&C.C. capturing the Chris Barr Trophy and Blue Mountain G&C.C. retaining the Finlayson Cup.

Our Course Rating team, headed by Jan Pickard, rated seven District courses. The team was also asked to rate five more courses in other Districts, due to lack of available raters.

Our thanks to our very hard-working executive, and special thanks to Helen Reeve of Shanty Bay G&C.C., who is retiring after nine years as our Secretary-Treasurer. Her many contributions to the growth of golf in Huronia have been invaluable, and she will be missed. District Coordinator, Joyce Dulmage, is retiring, as is Junior/Public Relations/Publicity Convener, Paul Dulmage. The New Executive will be Elaine Summers, District Coordinator; Susan Wehling, Teams and Juniors; Eileen Brown, Tournaments; Jan Pickard, Course Rating; and Gwen Guillet, Secretary-Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,
Joyce Dulmage, District Coordinator

Kingston District Report

The Spring Meeting was held on April 17, at Amherstview Golf Club. At that time, the Executive, announced several new initiatives for the 2004 District Program. The Executive also welcomed the Investors Group, Kingston Quinte Isles Region, as a new Sponsor. The District is comprised of 29 Clubs, 1 non-real estate, and a number of Public Players.

The Investors Group Women's Junior, Amateur, and Senior District Championships were held at Garrison Golf & Curling Club on July 17 & 18. The qualifying round was held in conjunction with the Garrison G&C.C. Invitational (90 participants). The following day, the low eight from each category vied for their respective titles (24 participants).

The Investors Group Men's Junior, Amateur, and Senior Championships were held at Bay of Quinte Golf Club on September 19. The Men's Tournament was an open format, and by awarding the winners entry into their respective Provincial Championships, the events attracted a highly competitive field (53 participants). We would like to thank the GAO Tournament Committee for its support of the District Men's Championships.

For the first time, the District 4-Ball Championship welcomed men participation, thus producing three sections: women's, men's, and mixed teams. This Tournament, held at Loyalist Golf Club on July 5, saw definite growth (68 participants). The District Scramble Championship was held at Barcovan Golf Club, on August 17. Thirty-six teams (144 participants) enjoyed the Texas Scramble Format. The Grey Power Classic District qualifier was held at Loyalist Golf Club, on August 22. With moderate growth, this tournament proves to have real potential. The Kevin Dickey Inaugural Junior Girls' Invitational was held at Catarauqui Golf & Country Club on August 1, although not a District Event, it did enhance Junior Girls Golf in the District. While the Field was small, the competitors were highly motivated. On the eve of the Tournament, Catarauqui G&C.C. hosted a Celebrity dinner for Marlene Streit.

2005 Amateur and Senior team trials were held at Napanee Golf Club, Garrison G&C.C., and Picton Golf Club. The Junior Girls Team for 2005 was selected from their placement in their District Championship. The 2005 Senior Team is Donna Walby, Jenny Ellis, Deborah Reimer, Betty Wonnacott, and Colleen Ward (Alternate). The Amateur Team is Helene Corcoran, Andrea Blackwell, Julie Jarvis, Joy Evans, and Colleen Ward (Alternate). The 2005 Junior Team is Paige Esford and Brittany Henderson, with Casey Ward as the Alternate.

The District also hosted a GAO Membership Seminar at Timber Ridge Golf Club, a GAO Handicap Seminar at Loyalist Golf Club, three qualifying rounds for Provincial Tournament Championships, the Provincial Ladies' 4-Ball Championship at Barcovan Golf Club, and the Provincial Men's Better Ball Championship at Loyalist Golf Club. We continue to strongly support hosting these Events in our District.

The District Women's Player Development Program was once again received with great enthusiasm. The Clinics were held at Catarauqui G&C.C. on May 29, 30, and June 27. Gord Mink, CPGA Pro and his team of Kevin Dickey, CPGA Teaching Pro and Dave McMicken, CPGA Assistant Pro, offered a comprehensive and challenging Program. This summer, we laid the foundation for a District Men's Player Development Program, which will begin Spring 2005 at Catarauqui G&C.C.

The District Course Rating Team rated the following Courses: Catarauqui G&C.C., Barcovan Golf Club, Rideau Lakes Golf Club, and Black Bear Ridge Golf Club. A combined GAO and Quebec team rated Catarauqui G&C.C. and Brockville Highlands Golf Club.

On May 16, Catarauqui G&C.C. hosted a very successful outdoor District Rules Clinic. Thirty men and women representing ten Clubs enjoyed the sessions instructed by Kay O'Neil, Janet Millikin, Margo Johnston, and Sally Cirtwill.

Before closing, we wish to say how privileged we are to have such a competent, co-operative and enthusiastic District Executive. Their level of commitment ensures the success of our Programs. At our District Fall Meeting, Scott MacLeod, Managing Editor of Flagstick Magazine, presented Kingston District with its Editor's Choice Award, a testimony to the dedication of our District, at all levels of participation.

Finally, we thank all attached to the GAO Office, both the employees and volunteers. Your leadership and expertise are essential to those of us working in the Districts. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,
Alice Gazeley, District Coordinator
Wayne Greer, District Coordinator

London District Report

At the Spring Meeting, held at the London Hunt Club, 34 of 47 clubs were represented, along with Public Player reps, for a total of 70 attendees altogether. We added two new volunteers to our executive, Georgeanne Grand (Rules) and Andree Date (Secretary), with Val Woodward moving to Tournaments. We are in the process of finding a replacement co-chair for 2005, as this is my final year. The outlook for 2005 is good, as we have all our courses in place for the various team trials and tournaments. We have been most fortunate in obtaining courses without having to pay green fees and for this we are very grateful.

Two Rules seminars were scheduled for this year at Westhaven G&C.C. and Sarnia G&C.C., but both were cancelled due to inclement weather. Our rules chair was busy this season, inspecting various courses for our district tournaments. She determined that one course was unplayable for our District Championship and therefore we had to move the Championship to Ingersoll G&C.C. and we thank them for helping us out at the last minute.

The men's course rating team, led by Emerson Creed, was busy this year rating 8 courses, including: Hickory Ridge G&C.C., Tamarack Ridge GC, Highland G&C.C., St. Thomas G&C.C., Cobble Hills GC, Heritage Heights G&C.C., Arkona Fairways GC, and FireRock GC. Zone A and Zone B women's course raters did 6 courses altogether. Some of the team also helped Joan McCallum rate courses outside our district. Joan McCallum held one Handicapping seminar at Highland G&C.C., on September 24.

Participation increased in the Grey Power Classic, due to the expansion to include ladies, as well as increased awareness. Eleven clubs in the Ladies' Division had 53 teams and the Men's Division had 45 teams. The District tournament was held at RiverBend Golf Club in late August. The Belmont Ladies' and Highland Men's teams went on to the Provincial Championship, where they won! Congratulations to both teams.

Lisa Maunu was our District Junior Champion for 2004, shooting 79 and winning by one stroke over Joanna Periversoff. They both represented our district at the Ontario Juniors Girls' Championship, in Goderich, where Joanna tied for 6th and Lisa tied for 24th.

Our Ladies' Amateur and Senior Championships were held at Ingersoll Golf Club, in early June. Jen Lavis was the Amateur Champ with a score of 72, Helen Morrin was the Senior Champ shooting an 84. The Diamond Lil winner was Janet LaFleche and Evelyn Pye was the Double Diamond Lil winner. The Four Ball tournament, held at St. Thomas GC, had 60 teams participating. The winners were the mother and daughter team of Carolyn and Rebekah Walker, who shot a 62 on a wet and soggy course.

Finally, I would like to thank all of the courses in London District who allowed us to play our team trials and tournaments without charging us green fees. I also want to thank my executive for their continued hard work, they have made my three years as co-chair very easy.

Respectfully Submitted,
Susan Holliday, District Coordinator

Mississauga District Report

The 2004 season began with the Spring Meeting held at the Trafalgar Golf Club on April 28. Twenty-six ladies and one gentleman attended representing 12 clubs within the district. Our guest speaker, Julie Borack, from the Nine Hole Golf Association, gave a heart-warming account of her involvement in the association, as well as the part they play within the Golf Association of Ontario.

Our coordinator, Dave Wilkinson, resigned early in the season, and we hope to find someone to fill his shoes for 2005. It is my intention to resign as coordinator in January of 2005, with Anne Edgar Dodds-Hebron taking my place. I have been busy making sure that all our tournaments are scheduled for 2005.

Once again I would like to express my thanks to North Halton G&C.C., and Trafalgar G&C.C., for hosting our Team Trials; Royal Ontario GC, for holding the Combined District Championship; Deerfield GC, for hosting the Four Ball Stroke Play Championship; and to Oakville Golf Club, for hosting the Tournament of Champions.

Congratulations to our Amateur Team, which consisted of Mary Ann Lapointe, Sandy Byckowski, Shauna Wilde and Veronica Lopes (Alternate-Barbara McKeeman) for winning the Low Net Championship and placing second low gross. Congratulations to Mary Ann Lapointe for making the Ontario Amateur team, and for bringing home the laurels as the Canadian Amateur Champion. Mary Ann was also a part of the second place Canadian team at the World Amateur Championship.

Our Senior Team consisted of Karen Vamplew, Gloria Sinclair, Dee Beattie and our alternate Lynne Owen. This team placed fourth low gross and fifth low net.

The Combined District Championship winners were Mary Ann Lapointe (Amateur Champion), Anne Edgar Dodds-Hebron (Senior Champion), Betty Farrell (Diamond Lil Champion), Barbara Malcomson (Double Diamond Lil Champion), and Ann Wood (Low Net of the Field). The Four Ball Stroke Play Champions were Cindy Wegg and Cindy Pereira, with the team of Muriel Rowland and Pat Edmonds finishing as the runners-up. For the first time the Tournament of Champions had men participating, and I am pleased to announce that our champions for 2004 were Mary Ann Lapointe and Rick Dodds-Hebron.

Many thanks to my executive who worked so hard; Karen Vamplew, Anne Edgar Dodds-Hebron, Joan Wright and Ann Wood.

Niagara District Report

The Niagara District was well represented at Provincial Championships in 2004. At the Ladies' Amateur Provincial Championship the Niagara District was represented by the team of Shannon Briggs, Carol Cort, Chris Critelli, and Lisa Simpson. The Senior team, made up of Sue MacKenzie, Nancy Wilson, Dale Lauzon and Giny Sunstrum, traveled to Spring Lakes Golf Club to represent Niagara at the Provincial Championship.

At the District Junior Girls' Championship, Kaurrie Carreau emerged the winner, with Jenny Halinda taking second place honours. Carreau and Halinda were joined by Adrianna DiLorenzo to form the Junior Girls' team, who played at the Provincial Championship at Goderich Sunset Golf Club.

Grey Power was once again a success in the Niagara District. Ninety teams (72 men and 18 ladies) competed in the tournament, with the team of Barb Aldridge and Joan Pye along with Glen Fullerton and Fred Moddie going on to Hawk Ridge for the Provincial Championship. At the Provincial Championship, Aldridge and Pye ended up tied for first in the Ladies' Division, but lost in a playoff. Fullerton and Moodie finished tied for fifth in the Men's Division.

Northern District Report

At the beginning of 2004, many clubs in the North retained their NGA and NLGA membership. However, Dave Mills and Barbara Allan, mediated a joint session of the two groups in July, and Morris Whatmore held another session in August. As a result, representatives of the NGA and NLGA agreed to amalgamate, following the lead of RCGA and CLGA. Particulars of the amalgamation will be determined in the coming months, but both groups pledged that they would promote GAO membership.

The Northern District was well supported by the GAO this year. In June, Sault Ste. Marie Golf Club hosted a Junior and Juvenile Boys' qualifier, and Timberwolf Golf Club held a Men's Amateur qualifier. In August, the Men's Northern Championship at Spruce Needles was a qualifier for the 2005 Men's Amateur. In addition, the Provincial Ladies' Amateur Championship was held in July at Timberwolf GC, and the Provincial Men's Senior Amateur was held in August, at the North Bay G&C.C.

The Ladies' Amateur was greeted with the same rainstorm that flooded Peterborough and other parts of the province. It was a tribute to the course that it held up under the torrents of rain and powerful winds. The final day of play was delayed, but completed. The senior men played their Championship, in cool but delightful sunshine, in North Bay. History was made, as Lee Griffin, Anna Poste and Sally Cirtwill, three of the province's finest rules officials officiated at this prestigious event.

In 2004, Marg Holgate, District Coordinator, and Laurann VanVolkenburg, Public Relations Officer were given a grant to travel to Northern courses, to inform them of the many benefits of GAO membership. They traveled over 4,000 kilometers, and saw more than 40 courses. A great deal of good will was spread, as many owners and managers were delighted to see a GAO representative walk in their front doors. We thank the GAO for their support on this venture.

The Women's division held their annual meeting at Hollinger Golf Club, in conjunction with the District Ladies' Championships. 78 women representing 19 clubs were in attendance. This year, the Ladies' Championship added a one-day scramble to the 2 days of stroke play. The scramble was an overwhelming success, in contrast to the dwindling numbers of women interested in stroke play. The Junior Girls' Championship was hosted by Huron Pines Golf and Country Club. On the men's side, Spruce Needles hosted the District Amateur in August, and Hollinger GC hosted the Junior and Juvenile Boy's Championship.

The North had teams representing our district at the Junior Girls', Ladies' Amateur, and the Senior Ladies' Championships. Our district was very disappointed to see the Handicap Award Tournament cancelled. The Northern Team won this event in 2002 and 2003, and was looking forward to a "three-peat".

The women's division says a fond farewell to Sharon Davis, Krista Cudmore and Erica Deschamps, retiring from their executive positions. We welcome Bev Low A Chee as the new Teams Convenor, and are delighted to have Bob McMenemy serving as District Coordinator.

Owen Sound District Report

At the Spring Meeting in April, at Walkerton Golf & Country Club, 10 clubs were in attendance to discuss the district 2004 program. With three Provincial Championships along with the many District events 2004 was a very busy year.

There were 68 participants at the District Better Ball at Walkerton G&C.C., May 26. Winners were Joan McAndrew and Sue McDougald of Stone Tree.

Fifty players competed at the District Championships at Goderich Sunset Golf Club, August 19. The winner of the Junior Championship was Ashley Gravett, and Lindsay McEwin won the Amateur title. The Senior Champion was Sophie Fenton, Shirley Purdie captured the Diamond Lil, and the Double Diamond Lil winner was Anne Foster. This was the first year that juniors joined the District Championship. Both juniors and amateurs enjoyed playing together.

The Junior Team of Shauna Berfelz and Melissa Clark played at the Ontario Junior Girls' Amateur Championship. The Amateur Team of Sandra White, Lysanne Miller, Kim Legge and Jeannine Gostick, played at the Ontario Ladies' Amateur Championship. The Senior Team of Sophie Fenton, Kathryn MacMurdo, Barb Eaton, and Shirley Purdie represented the District at the Ontario Senior Championship. Kathryn MacMurdo tied for 15th and Barb Eaton had the pleasure of playing with Marlene Streit for two days. The Grey Power teams of Red Dubrick and Terry Thompson, and Chris McCrae and Anne Foster played at Hawk Ridge in the 2nd Annual Grey Power Classic.

Special thanks to the volunteers and participants who helped make this season successful. Also, a special thank you to those volunteers who gave up their time to assist at the Provincial Tournaments hosted by our district, including the Junior Girls' and Bantam Girls' Championships at Goderich Sunset Golf Club and Men's Mid Amateur at Pike Lake Golf Club.

Our website (www.osdga.ca) is in its second year of operation. Tournament entry forms now have waiver included to download. We also use the site for pictures of events, advertising of district clinics, listings of conveners, and district tournaments information. Our database for the district, including players and volunteers, is expanding as well. We will continue to use this as another means to advertise our meetings, tournaments and clinics.

We have a new co chair, Judith Weaver, who will represent the district at the GAO meetings. With a few new volunteers on board, the district plans to launch a program for juniors golfers in 2005. We also have started a mentoring program at some courses and hope to build it into a district wide player development program.

Peterborough District Report

Our spring meeting was held at Kawartha Golf Course and was well attended. Attendance included representation of 14 courses and a total of 33 members including our men's coordinator.

The District held a Four Ball Tournament on June 23, which was well attended by 26 district golfers. Our Four Star Tournament, on August 16, also produced a good showing with participation by 28 competitors. Our players enjoyed both Cedarhurst Golf Club and Lindsay Golf Club, which we would like to thank for their help with these two events.

Our Grey Power Classic District event was held at Wolf Run Golf Course. We had teams representing 3 golf courses, including Wolf Run Golf Club, Keystone Links Golf & Country Club and Oshawa Golf & Curling Club. In the end our men's champions proved to be the team from Oshawa G&C.C., while in the ladies division the team from Wolf Run GC prevailed. Both teams went on to represent the district at the Provincial Championship at Hawk Ridge Golf and Country Club, in Orillia.

The district's outlook for 2005 was a major point of discussion at the Fall Meeting held in November.

Scarboro District Report

The Spring Meeting was held at Sleepy Hollow G&C.C. with 60 Club Captains, Vice Captains and Reps in attendance. Lee Griffin was the guest speaker, and gave us a very concise summary of the most relevant Rule Book changes for 2004. The Fall Meeting and luncheon was also held at Sleepy Hollow with 40 in attendance. Judy Hopkins was the guest speaker, giving an update on the proposed merger of the CLGA and RCGA.

The Combined District Championship was held at Beacon Hall Golf Club, which did an outstanding job hosting this event. Congratulations to Lisa Legris, who shot a par 72 to become the Amateur Champion, Nori Tamaki won the Senior Championship, Mita Kobayashi won the Diamond Lil, Heather Shanahan was the Double Diamond Lil winner, and Maureen Lindsay Geiser won the Low Net Award.

Cherry Downs G&C.C. was the host of the Four Ball Tournament, in which Susanne Dale and Emma Gemmell were the Low Net Trophy winners. Stephanie Lam and Laila Rintamaki with a round of 2 under par were the Gross winners. We had full fields for both of these tournaments.

Emily Gibson emerged as the winner at the Junior Championship held at Whitevale Golf Club, which was coordinated by Stephanie Lam our new Junior Convenor. Stephanie already has plans underway for next year which will include a Junior Boys' Championship.

Our Amateur Team of Stephanie Lam, Ashley Davis, Ivy Steinberg and Angela Colm finished 4th at the Provincial Championship. The Senior Team of Joey Bush, Debbie McDonald, Nori Tamaki and Some Sera finished 3rd at the Provincials. Christine Ryckman and Christine Ho represented Scarboro at the Provincial Junior Girls' Championship.

Once again there were 16 Clubs which participated in the District Foursomes. Section winners were from Granite Golf, Station Creek, Mill Run and Mandarin. Championship Day was held at Emerald Hills with the Mandarin team emerging as this year's winner. Barb Otani did a super job coordinating this group.

Scarboro District hosted the 2004 Provincial Men's Amateur and Ladies' Senior Championships which were held at Donalda Club and Spring Lakes Golf Club respectively. We were happy to be involved with these events which really do create a lot of enthusiasm.

This year, our Rules Workshop was held at York Downs G&C.C. Weather played havoc with our plans for on course sessions but Anne Edgar Dodds-Hebron's presentation was excellent. Seventy people attended this very worthwhile session. District Rules Officials were busy this year at the 3 District Tournaments as well as 8 GAO Provincial Events and the Toronto Star Tournament. Ron Richardson has also been very active as a Rules Official at GAO events.

The Course Rating Team was busy as well and this year, rating 9 courses for ladies. Paul Fitzgerald and his team have also rated several courses for men. An informal workshop was held for new raters last December and there are plans to do the same this winter.

The Grey Power Tournament was more successful this year with the addition of Ladies' division. We had 44 teams (27 Men, 17 Ladies) participate at the club level, with the winners advancing to Sleepy Hollow G&C.C. for the District Championship. The winners from Whitevale GC, Rosemary Hunt and Marjorie Underhill and from Scarboro G&C.C., Frank Boal and Harvey Walker, continued on to the Provincial Final. Rosemary and Marjorie were in a three way playoff for 1st, and placed second in the Ladies' Division.

My sincere thanks to the clubs that hosted our events, we could not manage without their kind generosity. Ken Hopkins has joined us as the male coordinator and we welcome his input. I can never thank my Executive Committee enough for their support and dedication. I truly appreciate their efforts and they are a great team!

Thunder Bay District Report

In spite of a cool and wetter than usual summer, our golf season was successful by all counts.

A special thanks to Craig Loughry, Director of Handicapping & Course Rating, who presented a Handicap Seminar in conjunction with our Spring Meeting in April, at Thunder Bay Country Club.

Our course rating committee had a productive year in 2004. The team completed the rating of the new twenty-seven hole Whitewater Championship course, as well as yardage reviews of the Geraldton and Nipigon-Red Rock courses.

We did not participate in the Grey Power Classic this year, due to high travel costs. Considerations of distance and associated costs of this event should be revisited to include participation of the Northern regions.

All District champions, who attended GAO Provincial Championships, represented our District favorably.

In 2005, we look forward to hosting a rules seminar, and to have Dave Colling, Director of Tournaments, to the District to discuss the 2006 Ontario Junior Boy's Amateur Championship.

On behalf of the Executive, I would like to thank our sponsors and dedicated volunteers, who helped make our season a success.

The Training Program was held again this year, with help from Jane Wilton (Convener), Betty Holloway Parr, Joyce McKay, and Marilyn Turner. There were sixteen participants representing 12 different Clubs, with handicaps ranging from 10-27.

In 2004, the Nine Hole Golf Association became gender-neutral, and is now the NHGA (Nine Hole Golfers' Association). The membership has increased this year to 12 clubs, welcoming St. Catherine's, Niagara-on-the-Lake, and Twenty Valley.

A most successful year-end tournament was held at York Downs, with the team from Thornhill Country Club emerging the winners.

I would like to thank all the conveners, for their hard work making our 2004 golfing year such an outstanding success. I would also like to thank all the Clubs, who offered their facilities for our District events. We could not function without their generosity. I have enjoyed working with Ken Murray, my fellow District Coordinator, who was a great help in running the Grey Power Tournament.

In closing, we regret the death of one of our Founders - Joyce Frewer.

Murray (Moe) Irwin Norman (1929—2004)

Moe Norman was golf's mystery man; he was a puzzle to most everyone and the world was a confusing place for him.

At the 1971 Quebec Open, he led by a stroke as he approached the final green. An official told him he was the only player to reach it in two. "I can't believe the fans didn't clap," he told his partner. He became so flustered, he four-putted to lose by a stroke. The next day at a Canadian Open practice round, reporters on the 10th tee razed Moe, "Any four putts today?" He hit his driver on the 223-yard, par three, watched it for a few seconds, turned and said, "I'm not putting today." The ball then rolled into the cup.

Moe Norman, the eccentric Canadian legend, was known as much for his quirky personality as he was known as one of the greatest ball-strikers in the history of the game. Murray Irwin Norman died September 4 of heart failure in his hometown of Kitchener, Ontario. He was 75. The man known around the world simply as Moe had suffered heart problems for seven years.

Although largely unknown outside Canada most of his life, golf's cognoscenti knew Moe and regarded him an equal with Ben Hogan, Lee Trevino and George Knudson, and he knew it. "I'm the best striker of the ball the world has ever known," he said. "Not the best player, the best striker." Lee Trevino once said: "I don't know any player who could strike a golf ball like he can, as far as hitting it solid, knowing where it's going, knowing the mechanics of the game and knowing what he wanted to do with the golf ball."

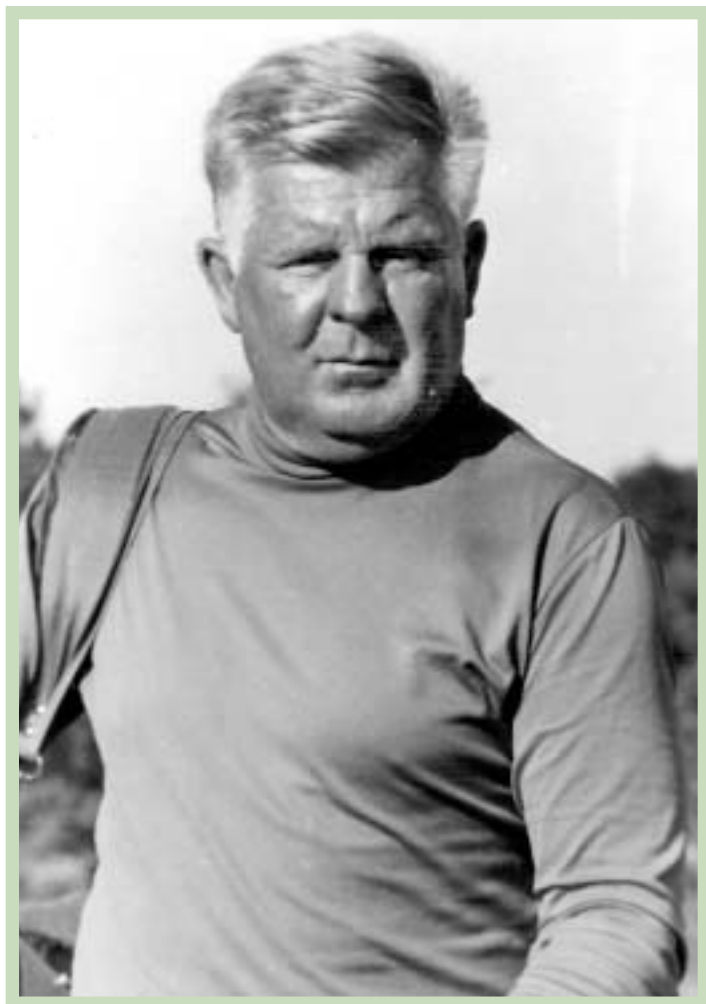

But his eccentricities often overshadowed his skill. He was the odd duck who spoke rapidly and repeated himself, the amateur who sold his prizes and hid from trophy presentations because of excruciating shyness, the ragamuffin who hit balls off eight-inch tees and Coke bottles on the PGA Tour.

Calling himself, "the 747 of golf," he regarded himself as the world's fastest player. He fought constantly with golf's governors. His clothes were often mismatched and stained. His teeth were snagged. He lived on the edge of poverty most of his career.

Like the man, his swing defied convention. Trevino considered him a genius. He held the grip in the palm of his right hand, spread his legs wide and stretched his arms out straight. His one-plane swing was a model of efficiency and precision. At clinics, you could put a blanket over balls hit with one club.

There are hundreds of stories about one of golf's most complex characters, but they overshadow a tremendous record of 54 amateur and professional victories, including two straight Canadian Amateur championships in 1955 and 56. He set 33 course records that included three 59s. He made 17 aces. He played in two Masters.

He played the PGA Tour in 1959 and '60, his best finish a fourth in the Greater New Orleans Open. He was supremely confident tee to green, but an anxious putter. "I couldn't get in my comfort zone." Norman dominated the Canadian Tour in the '60s and early '70s. He played for Canada in the 1971 World Cup and he won the Canadian Senior PGA seven times. As his playing days waned, he lived hand to mouth, financing himself through clinics, pro ams, wherever he could earn a check.

In the '90s, respect and financial security finally arrived. He was inducted into the Canadian Golf Hall of Fame in 1995, Natural Golf became a sponsor and Titleist President and CEO Wally Uihlein committed the company to paying him $5000 a month for the rest of his life. He became the subject of articles, videos, a book and TV shows. He received $50,000 for selling his life rights for a movie earlier this year.

Moe's friends are philosophical about his passing. "Moe was very lucky," said Kitchener professional Gus Maue. "He didn't hold a job for about 50 years, he went to Florida every winter for years, and he did pretty well what he wanted to do."

World Class!

A season of Canadian golf has passed since Marlene Streit learned of her induction into the World Golf Hall of Fame. Streit is the first Canadian to be so honoured, and nobody is more deserving of the recognition. At 70 years young—and, by the way, that's a score she's often shot during her lifetime, and lower than that also—she can often be found at her home surrounded by woods just north of Toronto. Streit hasn't found the woods much on golf courses during her remarkable career. But these are peaceful, non-golf woods. She's at home here, surrounded by photos, scrapbooks, headlines, telegrams, and trophies, many trophies.

Streit walks a visitor through her light-filled home one fine morning. She misses her late husband Doug and wishes that he could have been in St. Augustine, Florida during her Hall of Fame induction. They met in 1950 at a Canadian championship in Winnipeg, when she was 16 and he was 24 and attending the Colorado School of Mines. Marriage came later, along with two daughters.

"He liked to come out to the tournaments," Streit says of her husband, a geologist, "but he got nervous following me so he'd go back to the car and read a book."

Her scrapbooks could fill a book, or a library. Streit won the 1953 British Ladies Amateur when she was 19, at the Royal Porthcawl Golf Club in Wales. Her win captured the imagination of Canadians and golfers worldwide, and related memorabilia fill one of the scrapbooks.

On the front page of the Thursday June 25, 1953 edition of the Toronto Telegram, in large, boldface type one headline reads, "Marlene U.K. champion." Another, in smaller typeface, reads, "Ontario girl wins golf crown." The story occupies much of the upper part of the front page. "They say if you get the top half of the page, you've got it made," Streit says as she prepares a soup and sandwich for herself and her visitor, who spots another headline accompanying another story. "I'm going to win it," Marlene said, "and she did," the headline goes.

It's hard to overemphasize the magnitude of her victory in the British Amateur as Canadians felt it. It's not a stretch to suggest that the win meant as much to Canadians in 1953 as Mike Weir's 2003 Masters win meant for them a half-century later. Her scrapbook includes Western Union telegrams from "Two Irish priests in Canada praying hard for a Canadian Scotch girl in the British final," as Fathers W. and T. Harding wrote. Allan Lamport, then the mayor of Toronto, sent her a congratulatory telegram after her win.

Streit returned to Toronto after her victory to a ticker-tape parade in Toronto. Fifteen thousand people stood by as Streit rode by in an open convertible during the parade. People started calling Streit "Little Ben" when she returned home to Fonthill, Ont., and to her family and her teacher Gord McInnis Sr. She figures that's because Ben Hogan had won the British Open at Carnoustie in Scotland before she took the British Amateur. Hogan was fierce and he was quiet on the course.

"I admired Hogan," Streit says during lunch. "I liked what he did.

He went about his business and didn't say much. That's always what I wanted to do."

She's accomplished that and more. Streit went on to win national championships in every decade from the 1950s into this one, including her third U.S. Senior Women's Amateur in September 2004. Now she pores over scrapbooks and photos and telegrams and speaks of the mantra that McInnis always made sure she knew: "Smoothness, rhythm and balance, smoothness, rhythm and balance."

During the summer just past, Streit played a round at the Maple Downs Golf and Country Club in Maple, Ontario. She hadn't played the course for some forty years, but enjoyed just walking the course while pulling her clubs and being out there with friends. The head professional Mike Miscio played, and said he loved every minute of being with Streit. Later he asked her to sign the club's wall of fame inside the bag room. Streit signed that and also a photo. She could not have been more gracious. That's her nature. She simply likes being around golf, wherever she plays.

After her round, Streit was putting her clubs in the trunk of her car when she called a friend over. "Look at this license plate," she said, pointing to the car beside hers. The plate read "SRB." Only a moment before Streit had been speaking about smoothness, rhythm and balance. The mantra follows her around the golf world. She's displayed it in her game around the golf world for more than fifty years. No wonder she's an inductee into the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Asked what comments she might make during the ceremony, Streit said, "I guess I'll say thank you."

We should say the same to her. So let's do that.

"Thanks, Marlene. Thanks for being you. Thanks for what you've given to Canadian golf, and to the game and golfers everywhere."

Volunteer Report

Volunteering is the most fundamental act of involvement in our society; it is offering time, energy and skills of your own free will. While their contributions are undeniable, volunteers are rarely recognized and are usually the first to stay behind the scenes. Now is the time to push volunteers into the well-deserved spotlight. On behalf of the Golf Association of Ontario I would like to offer a sincere THANK YOU to all GAO Volunteers. Thank you for all your dedicated effort and time spent creating opportunities to improve the game of golf in Ontario.

Marketing Report

SPONSORSHIP

It has been a very active year for the Marketing Committee in the area of sponsorship. Investors Group continued to demonstrate their outstanding support of amateur golf by adding Title Sponsorship of six more events to their portfolio in 2004. Beck's Non-Alcoholic Beer was signed on as Title Sponsor of the Men's Better-Ball Championship and the Men's Champion of Champions, while the Grey Power Classic continued to expand with more sites and a new women's division. There are also the many "Official Providers" such as Ashworth, Baka Wireless, Bolle Eyewear, Bushnell, ClubLink, Foot-Joy, Moore's Clothing, and Titleist that contribute tirelessly. New sponsorship proposals are continually being sent out for 2005 and recently the Davey Tree Expert Company signed a three year agreement as "the Official Tree Care Provider of the GAO". We cannot thank our sponsors enough for their continued support of amateur golf in Ontario.

COMMUNICATIONS

This past year, our Association significantly upgraded our website as part of an ongoing effort to better communicate with our stakeholders and promote the association to the public. As we move forward we will continue to pursue new opportunities to enhance the initiatives. Ontario Golf Magazine continues to improve each year with interesting features and excellent coverage of GAO events and the amateur golf scene in Ontario.

PROMOTIONS

The GAO attended four Golf & Travel shows in Ontario (in Toronto (2), London, and Kingston) to promote benefits of membership and to communicate with members in other areas of the province. Our display booth was set up at several key Provincial Championships for club members to be informed and gain a better understanding of our association.

Membership Report

At the beginning of this year, the Membership and Marketing Committee was divided into two separate committees. The Membership Committee was given responsibility of membership policies, leaving member services related issues to the Marketing Committee.

The membership numbers have remained relatively consistent for 2004 compared to those of last year. The total number of member clubs in 2004 was 407 representing approximately 111,000 individual members (74,000 men, 27,000 women, 8,500 boys and 1,500 girls). Although there were 18 new clubs joining the GAO in 2004, membership numbers were offset by the number of withdrawals. The number of Non Real Estate Groups remains at 23, while the number of individual Public Players was 2,616 (2,290 men and 326 women).

The Membership Committee met in July to review policies and their report was approved by the Board. Elements of this report included:

- The Short Course category will be removed from the membership options because it has not been utilized to date.
- Membership Cards will continue to be required at all GAO tournaments.
- The Membership Application form will be revised and streamlined for 2005. It is expected that the GAO will be able to offer the option for clubs to renew their application on-line.

Executive Director, Dave Mills, continued to conduct Membership Seminars in a number of districts dealing with member services. These seminars proved to be effective in improving our members' understanding of the role of the GAO and will continue in 2005.

Special thanks to Membership Committee members: Barbara Allan, Lorry Moffat, Anna Poste, Debbie Sampson, Ken Skoretz, Dave Mills and Kate Sheldon. While there was only one meeting held this year, it proved to be very productive, with a great deal of input from all committee members.

Respectfully Submitted,
Diane Pappas, Chair

Player Development Report

In only its second year, the Player Development Committee continued its strong work in its two focus areas — youth development and encouraging growth of the game. We experienced growth in the programs that have been in place for many years and have developed two new programs that should reap benefits for many years to come.

The success achieved in 2004 is directly attributable to the hard work of the many GAO volunteers and staff who donated their time and effort.

FUTURE LINKS

The hiring of CPGA Professional Kelly Mills to operate the Mobile Van Program proved to be a major coup. His professionalism and enthusiasm for junior golf resulted in a highly successful season. Over 5,500 children were involved in clinics at summer camps, festivals, public schools, and professional golf tournaments. This was an increase of more than 3,000 children from 2003. Thanks to Kelly's efforts, we are already booking sites for 2005.

FUTURE LINKS GOLF IN SCHOOLS

With support from the Trillium Foundation Grant and an RCGA Grant, the Golf in Schools Program expanded to 37 schools in the Niagara, Barrie and Muskoka School Districts. Using the Stick to Golf equipment, the program introduced the basics of golf to public school students in physical education programs.

A total of 1,426 students participated, which was an increase of almost 1,000 over 2003. With the equipment having a life of at least five years, the program will continue to introduce the game to more students at these schools in the next few years. The Committee is looking to expand this program across the province in the coming years.

COACHING AND JUNIOR CAMPS

Dave Woods and Ralph Bauer continued their roles as GAO coaches in 2004. They attended all the GAO junior tournaments and traveled with the Ontario teams to the Canadian Junior Championships. In addition to conducting the junior camps and workshops, the coaches also worked on an individual basis with some of the best young players in the province.

The season kicked off with the annual Can-Am Matches in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Non-playing Captain Kelly Roberts joined the GAO Coaches to accompany the eight-member team for five days of training and instruction prior to a two-day match against a strong junior boys' team from South Carolina. The training provided immediate benefits, as the Ontario Team won the Matches for only the second time in the six year history of the event.

Four Future Links Player Camps (high performance camps open to both boys and girls) were held across the province (Legends on the Niagara, Angus Glen, Mount Elgin and Wildfire). The top 12 ranked players from 2003 as well as the top 10 players from the GAO's Clublink Tour were invited. The two-day camps included insight on practice, nutrition, playing strategy, fitness and guidance in tournament scheduling.

Three Player and Parent Information Workshops were held this year (Angus Glen, Goderich Sunset, and Caledon Woods). The GAO Coaches discussed the players' commitment to the game and the parents' role in their child's development in golf.

SCHOLARSHIP SEMINARS

Scholarship Seminars were again held across the province in 2004 to provide information to potential student athletes. The seminars explained the advantages and disadvantages of scholarships to U.S. schools and outlined opportunities in Canada.

ONTARIO CUP

The Player Development Committee unveiled the Ontario Cup, a team competition for boys and girls from across Ontario. The new program was designed to replace the former Ontario-Quebec Matches. Divided into East and West teams (four girls and four boys on each team), the Ryder Cup-type format competition was played at The Rock Golf Club. Accompanying the teams were Joan Hulmston, Bill and Debbie Duffield and Ian and Ruth Giles.

WOMEN'S TRAINING PROGRAM

Open to women members with a handicap factor of 8.4 or lower, this training program received 42 applicants this year (three times the number received in 2003). The 16 selected to participate spent two weekends in May, at the Ladies' Golf Club of Toronto.

GAO staff member Heather Dobbin worked with committee members Susan Wickware and Anne Edgar Dodds-Hebron to organize the program. Instruction was provided by Canadian PGA members Nadine Foreman (a GAO staff member), Johnalee Fraser of the Hamilton G & CC, Jill Evershed of Scarboro Golf & Country Club, GAO Coach Ralph Bauer and host professional Mary Jane Hall. Leading amateurs Mary Ann Lapointe and Judith Kyrinis addressed the participants and gave advice on match play competitions, golf course strategy and practice sessions.

WOMEN'S LEARN TO PLAY CLINIC

Designed to introduce the game to women who have never played golf, the GAO Office conducted a pilot clinic at Wooden Sticks Golf Club on August 15. Despite only advertising the clinic on the GAO website and through e-mail blasts to current players, we received interest from 45 women for the 15 available spots.

Former LPGA Tour member and current Wooden Sticks professional Karin Munding joined Nadine Forman as the instructors of the program. The activities of the day were focused on how the game is played (rules), etiquette, the short game, and the full swing. The day concluded with information on "What's Next", a guide to area courses and professional instruction.

The 2005 season should be another busy year for the Player Development Committee. Plans to continue the growth of the Golf in Schools program and the Women's Learn to Play Clinics will be at the forefront. We will continue to review the Ranking System and will attempt to look for more ways to introduce the game across the province.

Respectfully Submitted,
Kelly Roberts, Chair

Tournament Report

As I complete my second year as Tournament Chair I look back in awe at the accomplishments of our staff, GAO volunteers, and most of all our competitors. Despite poor weather throughout the 2004 season, we were able to complete every event without losing a single round. This accomplishment took a stellar effort to keep courses playable for competition by all our host golf courses. My thanks go to all involved for a job well done.

I wish to also thank all the GAO member clubs, who granted use of their facilities in order to execute our GAO events over the course of the summer. Without their co-operation it would have been a daunting task to organize 27 Provincial Championships and over 50 qualifying events. Furthermore, thank you to all the members of these courses, who graciously gave up their playing privileges in order for us to continue to serve amateur golf in Ontario.

With the assistance of our sponsors the GAO continues to conduct events at the highest level. The GAO will continue to strive to improve and add new innovations each year. Many thanks to Investors Group, ClubLink, Beck's Non-Alcoholic Beer, Baka Wireless, and Grey Power Insurance for their support.

This past season was our first year using the Blue Golf On-Line entry system. The acceptance by the competitors has been overwhelming. The amount of on-line entries, for the first year, far exceeded our expectations. As a result, in October, we introduced a new feature to the system, the Players Club Premium Edition, which we anticipate will also be well received. Entries in our Provincial events once again exceeded 4,500 competitors.

Congratulations to Mary Ann LaPointe for her Canadian Amateur victory and to all our Provincial Champions. Complete results from all GAO Provincial Championships are included in this yearbook as well as on our website, www.gao.ca. I invite you to view these at your leisure.

Finally, I would like to express my appreciation of our new Tournament Director Dave Colling and Tournament Administrator Nadine Foreman. Handling all the details of running so many events is no easy task and I congratulate them for their efforts. Well done.

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Duffield, Chair

Handicap & Course Rating Report

Members of the Handicap and Course Rating Committee met in 2004 in order to fulfill Committee Mandates in the following areas of activity:

HANDICAP CERTIFICATION SEMINARS

As of Oct. 22, 2004, 225 members/staff of 102 clubs in Ontario have been certified as Handicap Officials. This was achieved through 12 Handicap Seminars hosted at clubs across the province from Kingston to London and Thunder Bay to the GTA. During the last two years we have certified 385 Handicap Officials from 198 clubs. In keeping with the mandate from the RCGA to have certified Handicap Officials at all clubs by the end of 2005, the seminars will be continued in 2005.

Handicap Information Seminars were conducted for members at several clubs to increase their general awareness of the RCGA Handicap Manual and the role of the GAO. A Handicap Summit was introduced to the York District in October, in which Certified Handicap Officials from clubs across the district had the opportunity to meet and share ideas, concerns and successes.

COURSE RATING TRAINING

A successful two day seminar with 65 attendees was conducted at Glenway G.C.C. in May of 2004. 45 of those in attendance were either new or inexperienced raters. Plans have been initiated for regional seminars across the province in 2005.

With encouragement and funding from the RCGA two Joint Course Ratings were completed with teams from Ontario and Quebec. These ventures were coordinated in order to provide additional training for experienced course raters and to encourage consistency in course rating across the country. Rating teams from Ontario and Michigan also conducted a joint rating of a course in the Windsor area.

A REVIEW AND UPDATE OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The Policies and Procedures Document for Course Rating was rewritten, shared with all team leaders at the Spring Course Rater Training Seminar and approved by the GAO Board of Directors at their August meeting.

FUNCTION OF COURSE RATING TEAMS

There has been increased communication and sharing of both information and rating schedules between rating teams. The concept of course raters, functioning independent of gender and task, has been widely accepted and put into practice. Many rating teams have been active in a continuing effort to schedule courses to be rated during the same year for both Women's and Men's Ratings.

THE ROLE OF THE DISTRICT COORDINATORS

District Coordinators have agreed to assist in the promotion of Handicap Certification Seminars and to serve as a resource to Rating Team Leaders for assistance with clubs in their district.

On behalf of the Golf Association of Ontario may I extend commendation and appreciation to the staff and volunteers on the committee who willingly committed their time and energy to fulfill the mandates above.

Respectively submitted,
Paul D. Fitzgerald, Chair

Public Player Program Report

The Public Player Program was created for those golfers who do not hold an annual membership at a semi-private or private golf facility. These members join the Golf Association of Ontario as an individual or through established Clubs without Real Estate.

This year, over 3600 golfers became members of the GAO through the Public Player Program. Public Players joining Clubs without Real Estate accounted for over 980 GAO members, representing 23 different clubs in this category. These members enter their scores on the Ontario Golf Information Network (OGIN) at an established site, or through a Handicap Chairperson.

There were also 51 golf clubs and golf retailers across Ontario who served as affiliate posting hubs for the more than 2600 individual members of the Public Player Program.

We are pleased with the growth experienced in 2004 and continue to strive for ways to build and grow the program for the future through sponsorship and value added packages for the members.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan Buck

Technology Report

The Technology Committee worked with the GAO staff to complete two technology projects this year.

Our first project was the creation and implementation of a custom database for the GAO. This database, called our Member Management System, allows the staff to track, manage and identify our members and volunteers in an efficient and simple process. With this system, the office can send out email blasts to the members or volunteers on a variety of pertinent subjects.

Our second major project was the research of various Alternate Service Providers who could give us the tools to better manage the GAO website. We were primarily looking at incorporating a number of web-based portals to improve communication among our various stakeholders. We identified a company who can provide the necessary services and we began the website changeover in early November. We plan to showcase the new site and its improvements at the Annual General Meeting.

I would like to thank the Technology Committee members: Morris Whatmore, Harry Daniel, John Mealia, Mark Barrett and Andrea Blackwell. Special thanks go to Kate Sheldon, Administrative Director who has worked very hard overseeing the projects and ensuring their timely implementation.

Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Allan, Chair

Rules of Golf Report

2004 was an extremely busy year for our Rules Officials. Through rain and cold these dedicated volunteers officiated at over 80 GAO events across the province. In addition to these events, GAO officials also assisted with RCGA tournaments, Ontario and Canadian PGA tournaments, the Toronto Star Championships, the Ontario and Canadian College Championships, and the Ontario University Championships.

In January a new Rule book was issued, with the intention of making it easier to read. With this quadrennial revision came the need for all Rules Officials to attend a RCGA/CLGA or USGA Rules Workshop and write a three and a half hour exam. Congratulations to the following officials who either became certified or re-certified in 2004: Roy Bratty (London), Sally Cirtwill (Kingston), Anne Edgar Dodds-Hebron (Mississauga), Jim Furlong (Waterloo), Lee Griffin (Waterloo), Steve James (Waterloo), Gavin Kendrick (London), Bob Leggitt (Peterborough), Bill MacLean (Waterloo), Helen McGregor (Mississauga), Randy Millage (Peterborough), Mary Jane Paterson (Huron), Anna Poste (Kingston), Nancy Reid (Scarborough), and Tom Sturrock (Hamilton).

In early April a three-day Provincial Rules Workshop was held for District Rules Conveners and new officials. This Workshop was a follow-up to the Introductory Workshop offered in 2003, with a lot of material covered in a short period of time. The workshop concluded with a comprehensive examination. A special thank you to Anne Edgar Dodds-Hebron for all her hard work in the preparation of the materials for this workshop and her expertise in the delivery of the material. In 2005 we plan to offer several workshops across the province. Information about these workshops can be found on the GAO website, www.gao.ca.

The RCGA launched a new rules education/training programme. This programme represents a graduated approach to the Rules of Golf. There will be four levels, ranging from Level 1, which introduces players to the concepts and language of the rules, through Level 4, the national certification level for Rules Officials. All member clubs received a copy of the Level 1 Programme which includes two CDs and a Rule Book. If you are looking for this package at your club you can order copies for a nominal fee by contacting the GAO tournament department. Anyone who is interested in becoming a rules official should complete the Level 1 programme.

Thank you to the members of the Rules Committee for their dedication and wisdom as we shape policy and set in motion a plan for rules education across the province. A special thank you to Dave Colling and his staff for their professionalism in organizing and running our tournaments. Our jobs were made a lot easier by their diligence.

Respectfully submitted,
Lee Griffin, Chair

Scholarship Program Report

The Golf Association of Ontario awarded scholarships to twenty-one deserving Ontario students this year as part of the GAO Scholarship Program. Over $23,000 in scholarships was granted this year to students excelling both in the classroom, and on the golf course. Scholarships, ranging from $1,000 to $1,500, were given to students to assist them in offsetting the costs of attending college or university, while continuing their golfing careers.

The GAO began awarding scholarships to promising young golfers in 1996, and has now awarded over $130,000. Several scholarships are awarded on behalf of generous sponsors — Investors Group, Grey Power Insurance, Ashworth, Baka Wireless, and Bushnell. A special thanks to the Ken McKenzie Estate, which donated $75,000 to the GAO Scholarship Fund earlier this year.

Ontario Golf Hall of Fame Report

The 2004 Ontario Golf Hall of Fame (OGHF) Induction Ceremony was held on May 5, 2004 in conjunction with the Golf Association of Ontario's Media and Sponsor Day, at Wooden Sticks Golf Club in Uxbridge. Our president Morris Whatmore welcomed the guests and paid special tribute to OGHF member, Marlene Stewart Streit, the first Canadian to be inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame. Well known golf writer, Lorne Rubenstein was the Master of Ceremonies and he introduced our 3 inductees: Jimmy Johnstone, Rick Fraser, and Ben Kern who were all inducted posthumously.

Rick L. Fraser was born in Nova Scotia and began a 40 year career in journalism on the east coast and later relocated to Ontario working for the Barrie Examiner and The Globe and Mail. He then moved to the Toronto Star, a position that cemented his reputation in Canadian sports journalism. He covered boxing and golf for 18 years and was inducted into the Boxing Hall of Fame in 1993.

As well as covering the PGA Tour and other major events, he was a strong supporter of amateur golf across Ontario, especially women's golf. He was a frequent contributor to Score Magazine and wrote a weekly golf page for The Toronto

Sun after his retirement. In 1999, the RCGA bestowed upon Fraser the Outstanding Achievement Award for his unwavering support of the game of golf. Rick Fraser passed away on February 15, 2000.

Benard A. Kern was born in Brazil and immigrated to Canada as a young boy. He began his golfing career at Credit Valley Golf and Country Club. While attending New Mexico State University he was the winner of 10 collegiate events and was the first Canadian to garner First-Team All-American honours. He was a two-time winner of the New Mexico Open Championship and was a member of two Willington Cup Teams. He represented Canada at the America's Cup Matches in Guadalajara, Mexico and at the World Cup in Caracas, Venezuela. Ben earned his PGA Tour card in 1969 and spent 7 years on the Tour. He also won the 1974 New Mexico PGA Championship. He enjoyed a distinguished 20 year career at the National Golf Club of Canada and in 1996 became Director of Golf at the Devil's Pulpit Golf Club. In addition to this fine record, Ben set 7 competitive course records. Ben Kern passed away on October 6, 2002.

James Johnstone was born in Scotland and at age 15 apprenticed under his uncle, the head professional in Pretoria, South Africa. There he honed his playing ability and learned about course maintenance and development. Moving to Canada in 1923, he became the Head Professional at Riverview Golf Club, now known as Galt Country Club. He later won the CPGA Championship three times and qualified for the US Open three times as well. In 1925 he became the Head Professional at Rosedale Golf Club in Toronto. He went on to work with millionaire Nelson Davis and designed the ultra private club, Box Grove in Markham. He achieved the Master Professional status with the CPGA in 1974. He also designed the following golf courses: Donalda Golf Club, Sleepy Hollow Golf Club, Don Mills Golf Centre and served as architectural consultant for Bayview Golf Club, Willows Golf Club, Meadowvale Golf Club and Magnetic Hill Golf Club. In 1957 he received the prestigious Canadian Industrial Design Award for his revolutionary power-mated technology, in which the distribution of weight in a set of irons increases progressively from toe to heel and top to bottom. He sold his design to the PGA Golf Company in 1970. Jimmy Johnstone passed away on September 1, 1976.

The Hall of Fame was saddened to learn of the passing in 2004 of Ontario Golf Hall of Fame members Claude Pattemore and Murray Irwin (Moe) Norman.

We continue to encourage nominations to the Hall of Fame and the appropriate forms are available on-line or from the GAO office. Please remember that the Ontario Golf Hall of Fame is open year round and that we continue to accept donations to further the undertakings of the Hall.

Respectfully submitted,
Carolyn Smith, Chair
